

Itinerary

Taste your way through Copenhagen

With 22 Michelin stars across 17 restaurants and a wealth of budget eats to explore, Copenhagen is the perfect place to get closer to world class cuisines. Copenhagen, also home to New Nordic cuisine, has earned quite a reputation as a culinary hotspot. With a constantly evolving restaurant scene that caters to all tastes and budgets, you are never far from great dining experiences. Try local produce that will blow your taste buds away or join many of the city's culinary events and food tours.

A true classic: Smørrebrød

Smørrebrød is the one thing you don't want to miss out on. The Danish open faced sandwiches are perhaps the most famous of the Danish food classics. Smørrebrød is simply a slice of rye bread with various combinations of toppings. This handy lunch item has had a face lift in recent years and is now hipper than ever.

Photo: Columbus Leth

Reffen street food market

The latest talk of the town is Reffen, Copenhagen's new street food market. With a unique location by the harbour front, this is not just your typical multicultural food market, but also an urban area for startups, creative workshops, innovative projects and cultural experiences.

Photo: Daniel Rasmussen

The Danish hot dog

Danish hot dog stands are a cultural institution and have been feeding hungry Danes for more than 80 years. Be sure to stop by one of them and grab a bite to eat while on the go – you can even find more modern and gourmet versions that will certainly please your taste buds.

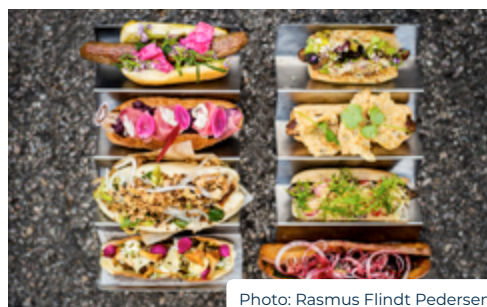

Photo: Rasmus Flindt Pedersen

Meatpacking District

One of the most popular hang-out spots! The Meatpacking District has a buzzing atmosphere all year round and is packed with restaurants and bars. It's no surprise that the Meatpacking District used to house Copenhagen's meat industry. But in recent years it has evolved into a creative cluster with a trendy nightlife and a broad range of high-quality restaurants.

Photo: Martin Heiberg

Where to stay and meet

Here is a promise from us to you: Copenhagen has some of the best venues in the world. Really! Add to that top-notch hospitality and everything within reach. You will not be disappointed. Here you'll find just a few of our favourites.

BC Hospitality Group

The iconic congress center Bella Center Copenhagen is equipped with state-of-the-art technology and is interconnected with the 4-star AC Hotel Bella Sky Copenhagen. A true landmark in Copenhagen offering excellent dining experiences, unique meeting facilities and incredible views of Copenhagen.

Nordic Choice Hotels

In Copenhagen the Nordic Choice Hotel chain offers conferences, meetings and events in the trendy Vesterbro neighborhood or close to Copenhagen Airport. The two hotels in the heart of Copenhagen, Comfort Hotel Vesterbro and Hotel Skt. Petri, are close to Tivoli, the city's many restaurants and docks so you can have the real Copenhagen experience.

CPH Conference

The perfect position between Copenhagen Central Train Station, Tivoli Gardens and the vibrant Meatpacking District makes it a breeze for guests to arrive and enjoy their event at CPH Conference. Explore the city with no need for transportation before heading back to the newly renovated in-house hotel.

How to get here

Copenhagen Airport is Scandinavia's major hub and was ranked 'Best Airport in Northern Europe 2017' by SKYTRAX.

The travel time to the city centre by shuttle rail service and the 24-hour fully-automated metro is just 13 minutes. There are also direct rail links from the airport to many destinations in Denmark.

Going from A to B

Copenhagen is well-connected with fast and accessible 24-hour public transport. And you can always do as the Danes – hop on a bike. Regional and metropolitan trains also connect the Central Station and Nørreport Station with destinations in scenic North Zealand within an hour's travel.

Copenhagen Facts

Capital of Denmark, Copenhagen is a liveable city – easy to navigate, green and sustainable, bike-friendly and rich in design and great Nordic dining. It takes just 13 minutes by metro from CPH Airport to the city center. Copenhagen Airport was rated best in Europe and 7th best in the world in 2016.

